

Rob Gailey: CHUNKING OF ASSIGNMENTS

Weekly Activities (up to 250 points available) – 25% of Total Grade

Each week students will be given an activity to complete in response to materials from the week's required readings. These activities will be due each week just before class begins. There will be at least 12 activities during the course of the semester but there may be more. Each of the activities will be outlined in detail. If you complete an activity to all of the specifications, you will receive credit for that assignment. If you do not complete all of the specifications, you will receive no credit for that assignment.

You are able to choose the Grade you want to achieve:

To earn 250 points

- Complete at least 12 weekly assignments for credit

To earn 215 points

- Complete at least 10 weekly assignments for credit

To earn 190 points

- Complete at least 8 weekly assignments for credit

To earn 165 points

- Complete at least 6 weekly assignments for credit

To earn 150 points or less

- Complete less than 6 weekly assignments for credit

Service-Learning Project (up to 250 points available) – 25% of Total Grade

A major portion of this class will be spent engaging in hands-on work at a nonprofit organization and thoughtful reflection on those experiences. At least 25 hours of volunteer work during the semester is required for this assignment to receive full credit. Some in-class seat time may be given to accommodate these hours. There will be both verbal and written reflections to complete on these experiences. More information on this assignment will be posted on Canvas.
